Building the Church in Boston

By Robert J. Lally
Archdiocesan Archivist and Records Manager

The next time you're downtown Boston, stroll over to 24 School Street, around the corner from the Borders Bookstore. There is a plaque on the wall indicating that this was the site of the first Catholic Church building in Boston. On November 2, 1788, the Abbé de la Poterie, a former French naval chaplain serving Boston, celebrated the city's first public Mass in a converted Huguenot chapel located here. He renamed the building Holy Cross Church. It had been eight years since the freedom to worship as a Catholic had been codified in the Massachusetts Constitution. By the turn of the century, Fr. Francis Anthony Matignon and his assistant, Fr. Jean Louis Lefebvre, both refugees from the French Revolution, were ministering to a growing Boston Catholic population. They determined a new church building was needed and raised the funds to build The Church of the Holy Cross. President John Adams was one of the financial contributors. Neither of the first two Holy Cross Churches is still standing. But they were the building blocks of what was to come.

Perfect Offering By Dr. Scott Hahn

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading. He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "'You are My servant,' He said to Me." Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus - to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (see Acts 13:46-47). Before the first exodus, a lamb was offered in sacrifice and its blood painted on the Israelites' door posts. The blood of the lamb identified their homes and the Lord "passed over" these in executing judgment on the Egyptians (see Exodus 12:1-23,27). In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3-13). The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin-offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice - that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will. Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience, made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle. He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies - our lives - as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).

Immediate Preparation For Confirmation: If you are an adult who may never have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, we would welcome you to come forward at this time. Our RCIA team is here waiting to serve you! We meet on Saturday morning from 9:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. in the Parish Hall of Saint Margaret Church. The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered on Sunday, March 30 by His Eminence, Cardinal Sean O'Malley. Confirmation is the sacrament that leads Christians toward a more intimate union with Christ and a more lively familiarity with the Holy Spirit - His actions, His gifts, and His biddings - in order to be more capable of assuming the apostolic responsibilities of Christian life. Confirmation is also required in becoming Godparent to a child or adult receiving Baptism. If you desire to prepare for this sacrament or know of someone who is interested please let Fr. George know. Attending meetings now will prepare you for the upcoming reception of the sacrament on March 30.

Town Census: The annual Town Census has been mailed to every household in the community. It is important to fill it out and return it to the Town Clerk's Office. The amount of state funding for many things is dependent on a full and accurate count of all residents. If you did not receive this form in the mail, call the Town Clerk at 781-231-4101.

Eucharistic Ministers Needed for Hospital Visitations: Melrose Wakefield Hospital depends on volunteer Eucharistic Ministers from its surrounding community parishes to bring communion to and have pastoral visitations with Catholic hospital patients. Mr. Bill Lucey, the Catholic Hospital Chaplain, is in need of Eucharistic Ministers to fill a few open slots in the schedule. If you are interested in getting involved in Hospital Ministry, please talk with Fr. George or Bev Gorman at (781) 233-8306.

"I was ill and you visited me."

It is our hope that a good number of both men and women from our Parish and community will participate in these excellent conferences. We hope to order a good number of tickets. If you are interested, let us know.

The Sacrament of Baptism is usually celebrated on the third Sunday each month at 12 Noon. There is a Preparation Meeting prior to the Baptism of a child which is held every other month. FAITH FACTS

The reading is from the gospel of Saint John.

Saint John tells us that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove. He also calls Jesus "the Lamb of God."

Artists who have wanted to represent the three persons of the Trinity have often used these symbols. The drawing shown here has been taken from a carving on a medieval church. God the Father is in the center. God the Holy Spirit is shown as a dove, at the top. God the Son is shown as a lamb, at the bottom.
