FAITH FORMATION

Drawing Closer to God Through the Church

Steve Dalton is presenting an excellent Adult Faith Formation course as a complement to the Arise program. The course is offered on Saturday mornings until Saturday, February 14 from 9:30 to 12 Noon at Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall. The course will be introductory in nature and should nicely complement the Arise program. Thus, the target audience are those who have already participated in the first Season of Arise, as well as those who intend to begin Arise in February. Of course, everyone from the community -- especially those in active ministry (e.g., Eucharistic ministers, lectors, RCIA leaders, CCD teachers, etc.) are most welcome as well. Here is the Course Outline:

Drawing Closer to God Through the Church

Week 1: "Encountering God's Goodness"

Week 2: "Incarnation: The Word Became Flesh"

Week 3: "Salvation History: Life Really Is Going Somewhere"

Week 4: "Gospel Power: The Message of Jesus"

Week 5: "The Church, Our Home"

Week 6 will be a snow date, just in case one (or more) of our sessions must be canceled due to inclement weather.

Course instruction will be drawn from the Bible, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and from several key documents from Vatican Council II.

Participating in this course is a wonderful gift you give yourself at the beginning of the New Year. Everyone is encouraged to take full advantage of this faith formation opportunity. Steve is man of deep personal faith and is an excellent teacher. Those who have participated in his previous courses will attest to this. The course is free of charge and all are welcome.

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn
Following Him

The calling of the brothers in today's Gospel evokes Elisha's commissioning by the prophet Elijah (see 1 Kings 19:19-21).

As Elijah comes upon Elisha working on his family's farm, so Jesus sees the brothers working by the seaside. And as Elisha left his mother and father to follow Elijah, so the brothers leave their father to come after Jesus.

Jesus' promise - to make them "fishers of men" - evokes Israel's deepest hopes. The prophet Jeremiah announced a new exodus in which God would send "many fishermen" to restore the Israelites from exile, as once He brought them out of slavery in Egypt (see Jeremiah 16:14-16).

By Jesus' cross and resurrection, this new exodus has begun (see Luke 9:31). And the apostles are the first of a new people of God, the Church - a new family, based not on blood ties, but on belief in Jesus and a desire to do the Father's will (see John 1:12-13; Matthew 12:46-50).

From now on, even our most important worldly concerns - family relations, occupations, and possessions - must be judged in light of the gospel, Paul says in today's Epistle.

The first word of Jesus' gospel - repent - means we must totally change our way of thinking and living, turning from evil, doing all for the love of God.

And we should be consoled by Nineveh's repentance in today's First Reading. Even the wicked Nineveh could repent at Jonah's preaching. And in Jesus we have a greater than Jonah (see Matthew 12:41). We have God come as our savior, to show sinners the way, as we sing in today's Psalm. This should give us hope - that loved ones who remain far from God will find compassion if they turn to Him.

But we, too, must continue along the path of repentance - striving daily to pattern our lives after His.

Arise Together in Christ Season Two of Arise will start the week of Ash Wednesday, and small groups will be forming during Lent. Our hope is that the participation of people from both Saint Margaret and Blessed Sacrament Parishes will double! Last fall just about 100 people participated. Let's make this Lent a time of spiritual growth with Arise.

Next weekend, January 31 and February 1 is sign-up weekend for Season 2. Participants from Season 1 will be sharing their experiences at each Mass. There will be sign-up sheets in all the pews for anyone who is interested in participating in Season 2. You can leave your forms in the pews or put them in the boxes marked "ARISE" that will be at the entrances to the church. If you have any questions, please call the rectory at 781-233-2497.

Season 2 is entitled "Change Our Hearts." The first session reflects on the central call of Ash Wednesday to "conversion," both as a "turning away from ..." and as "turning toward..." Over the next four sessions we explore the meaning of lifelong conversion. The concluding session, in the week before Passion Sunday, leads us into Holy Week.

Communion to the Home-bound: Do you know someone who is unable to come to Mass and who would appreciate receiving Holy Communion on a regular basis?

If so, call either Rectory:
St. Margaret 781-233-1040

Blessed Sacrament 781-233-2497

Our Parishes have wonderful Ministers of Holy Communion who would be glad to visit on a regular basis during the year.

Shaw's Cash Register Receipts Program:

Since July 1, 2008 Saint Margaret Parish has received $749.98 through the Shaw's Cash Register Receipts Program. Please keep those cash register receipts coming because the Parish receives 1% back of all the receipts we return to them. Collect them from family, friends and neighbors and return them to the special basket in the front vestibule of Saint Margaret's Church. Thank you.

Blessed Sacrament Parish has recently applied to participate in this program also. We will let you know when it will begin.

A few days ago we received the following letter from Derek E. Calero, First sergeant, United States Army:

“To All, Thank you for the Gifts that you have sent to us all.

“I am First Sergeant Derek E. Calero. I have 29 soldiers in my detachment and everyone has received the gifts.

“We are from Dallas, Texas ‘Go Cowboys’ and welcome the spirit of support you share with us. It truly means a lot to read the cards, letters and post cards that we find in the packages. The items sent, we use and give to other soldiers that haven’t received a sponsor package. All soldiers here share in the happiness in knowing that we are not alone and we are supported.

“We are a Civil Affairs unit. We help the people here to re-establish what they have lost during the war. We focus more on helping to rebuild schools, factories, stores, water wells and electricity. As you can imagine, we are very busy here. But, it shows that we the people of US Armed Forces care. It means a lot to us when we see our work completed and the families happy. The country still has a long way to go but we hope that it can happen and we continue to help those who need. It.

“With all of our Gratefulness, we want to say THANK YOU!”
