SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER | DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

In Word & Deed

Our response to good news is often one of doubt. A popular program on public television is Antiques Roadshow. People bring in their old treasures to have them appraised. Whenever someone has an item that receives a high estimation of value, the response is inevitably one of doubt and suspicion: “No way” or “You’ve got to be kidding” or “Are you serious?” We need to confirm, to verify and to see for ourselves that something good is true. No one ever says those things when the estimate is low or an item is deemed worthless. Instead, they say things like, “I knew it” or “I thought that would be the case.” We are indeed plagued by doubt.

It’s no surprise then that Thomas doubted. He was not present when Jesus appeared and he just could not believe what the other Apostles were telling him. He needed to see and feel for himself if he

Sunday Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41/Rv 5:11-14/Jn 21:1-19 or 21:1-14	April 18

Because we have been gifted with God's peace in the risen Christ, we are called to our own peace and to the making of peace in our world. As disciples and as children of God it is our task to seek for ways in which to make the forgiveness, justice and mercy and love of God visible in a world where violence and enmity are too often the norm.

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

When I was in high school, it was a great relief to hear the pastor tell us that doubt is part of faith and we should expect to have doubts from time to time. The mysteries of faith are deep and cannot be totally comprehended, so when our minds run into a roadblock that refuses to be understood or submit to logic, we doubt. It is a natural reaction to things we do not understand. His suggestion was to keep trying to understand and then to appreciate the mysteries of faith, especially the Eucharist, the Trinity and the eternal nature of God—questions that always came up in our religion class.

Doubt can trip us up if we assume that it indicates a lack of faith. Doubt just means we need to understand more, appreciate better, or practice more intently. It means we reaffirm our beliefs, get answers to our questions and clarify our thoughts. Doubt may indicate that we are growing, leaving behind a less mature faith and deepening our spiritual life. So talk about it. Share your thoughts and ideas with your spouse. Learn and grow together. Explore the Catechism, try different forms of prayer or study the Bible. Get what you need to be a little more certain, a little less fearful and a lot more joyful. Let your doubt motivate you to strengthen, share and practice your faith.

was to have faith. When Jesus appears again, He gives Thomas what he needs to believe.

We all have moments of doubt and we seek reassurance that Jesus will give us what we need just as He gave Thomas what he needed. Jesus does not reject faith because of doubt; he rejects doubt with the fulfillment of faith. Faith stands in the present and looks to the future. Be confident. The Lord will finish the good work He has begun in you.

“Christ Speaks in the City” Spring 2010 Lecture

Series: The Archdiocese of Boston Spring “Christ Speaks in the City” Lecture Series kicked off at the Old State House on Wednesday, March 10, 2010. The Series is an event hosted by the Vocation Office of the Archdiocese of Boston in the heart of Downtown Boston’s Financial Center. People are invited to learn more about and to ask major questions regarding their Catholic Faith. The Lectures feature speakers who are recognized for their extraordinary witness to the faith. Lectures are free to the public, and a light lunch is provided. Rev. Daniel Hennessey, Director of Vocation for the Archdiocese of Boston states: “the spring series is focused on The Year for Priests, established by Pope Benedict, so that we can recognize the indispensable vocation of the priesthood for the life of the Church and the world. It is our hope and prayer that those who attend will be inspired to a deeper love and understanding of the Priesthood.” The location for this Lecture Series is The Old State House, 206 Washington Street, Boston. The time for each lecture is from 12 Noon to 1:00 p.m. A light lunch will be served.

The spring 2010 schedule is as follows:

- Wednesday, April 14, 2010, Rev. Daniel Hennessey and Rev. Michael Harrington. Vocation Director and Assistant Vocation director of the Archdiocese of Boston, respectively. They will speak on “The Parish Priest: Witnessing to the Mysteries of God.”
- Wednesday, May 12, 2010, Rev. Romanus Cesario, O.P. Professor of Moral Theology, St. John’s Seminary, Senior editor of Magnificat Catholic Author and Lecturer. His topic will be “The Priest: Indispensable Vocation, Irreplaceable Gift.”
- Wednesday, June 2, 2010, Rev. Roger Landry, Executive Editor of The Anchor, the weekly newspaper of the Diocese of Fall River and Pastor, St. Anthony of Padua Parish in New Bedford will speak on “How Everyone Profits from the Year for Priests: St. John Vianney’s Down-to-Earth Wisdom for Every Catholic.”

For more information on the “Christ Speaks in the City” Spring Lecture Series, please contact the Vocation Office at 617-746-5949 or visit their website at www.vocationsboston.org. All are invited and there is no cost.

Last month, Cardinal Sean made a personal appeal to all Catholics of the Archdiocese of Boston as he launched the Annual Catholic Appeal. All registered Parishioners of both Blessed Sacrament Parish and Saint Margaret Parish received a request letter and pledge/donation card in the mail. If you did not receive one or if you are not a registered Parishioner in either Parish, there are information packets at the doors of the Church. Please take one. As the Cardinal said, “no gift is too small.” Please support the work and the mission of the Church. In order to make the most of your contribution, many companies have “matching gifts” programs. A “matching gift” could double your contribution and help the Parish to arrive at its goal sooner. Enquire at your place of employment and get the necessary information and forms. As the Appeal proceeds we will keep you up to date with our progress. In the name of Cardinal Sean, we thank you for your generosity.

Seeing and Believing

By Dr. Scott Hahn

Jesus is nowhere visible. Yet today's Gospel tells us that Peter and John "saw and believed." What did they see? Burial shrouds lying on the floor of an empty tomb. Maybe that convinced them that He hadn't been carted off by grave robbers, who usually stole the expensive burial linens and left the corpses behind. But notice the repetition of the word "tomb" - seven times in nine verses. They saw the empty tomb and they believed what He had promised: that God would raise Him on the third day. Chosen to be His "witnesses," today's First Reading tells us, the Apostles were "commissioned...to preach...and testify" to all that they had seen - from His anointing with the Holy Spirit at the Jordan to the empty tomb. More than their own experience, they were instructed in the mysteries of the divine economy, God's saving plan - to know how "all the prophets bear witness" to Him (see Luke 24:27,44). Now they could "understand the Scripture," could teach us what He had told them - that He was "the Stone which the builders rejected," that today's Psalm prophesies His Resurrection and exaltation (see Luke 20:17; Matthew 21:42; Acts 4:11). We are the children of the apostolic witnesses. That is why we still gather early in the morning on the first day of every week to celebrate this feast of the empty tomb, give thanks for "Christ our life," as today's Epistle calls Him. Baptized into His death and Resurrection, we live the heavenly life of the risen Christ, our lives "hidden with Christ in God." We are now His witnesses, too. But we testify to things we cannot see but only believe; we seek in earthly things what is above. We live in memory of the Apostles' witness, like them eating and drinking with the risen Lord at the altar. And we wait in hope for what the Apostles told us would come - the day when we too "will appear with Him in glory."

A Report from Your Pastoral Planning Committee

There is now a Pastoral Planning Committee consisting of Financial and Parish Councils and Staff of both Blessed Sacrament and St. Margaret's churches. Father George Morin, Father Dan McCoy and Bernard Swain have been very helpful in directing each group's responsibilities. They have been divided into four groups: Communication, Non-Priestly Duties, Parish Growth and Priestly Duties.

The committees have been meeting regularly as part of the larger group and frequently in their own group in preparation for the possibility of having only one priest in Saugus.

The Communication group consists of Eleanor Gallo, Steve Gerome, Pauline Kimball, Leah Korba, Corinne Riley, Linda Riley and Donna Sordello.

The Non-Priestly team consists of Marilyn Donovan, Karen Dutton, Deacon Frank Gaffney, Greg Nickolas, Nate Marsella, and Jim Rogers

The Parish Growth committee is Alba Baccari, Joe Johnson, Martha Lecaroz, Kathy Sullivan, Anna Swain, and Donna Zinna.

The Priestly Duties committee includes Phil Barbanti, Marie Boudreau, June Cieri, Joanne Eaves, Joe Krasowski, Carol Nadeau, Rosemary Reed and Lauraine Supino.

The Pastoral Planning Committee was able to work together to promote unity in our Parishes as we realize there is a great deal of work yet to be done.

A meeting was held at Blessed Sacrament on November 1, 2009 for all parishioners which was very informative. We are hoping to have another meeting with parishioners, set up an information center, and look for volunteers to assist in sub-committees in various ministries that will help in our parish growth.

From the Pastoral Planning Committee, a joint committee of Blessed Sacrament and St. Margaret's parishes, formed to prepare for the day when there may be one priest serving the Catholic community of Saugus.
