C.A.M.P.S. – Christ As My Personal Savior: A Week-Long Summer Camp Creatively communicating the refreshing spirit of Christ. Having a personal relationship with him and living for him does make a difference in our lives and in the world. In the Summer of 2007, over 340 high-school students and youth leaders experienced the most incredible one-week event ever. This August, be part of the experience. You hear lots of talk about this or that "unique" event. But CAMPS 2008 is just that. At CAMPS we blend a variety of creative activities - music, games, talks, discussions, worship, concerts, campfires, and tournaments - into a powerful, one-week retreat adventure. It will be an opportunity to meet new people, have a lot of fun in a way never imagined, and deepen your faith in Christ. C.A.M.P.S. August 11-16, 2008 - a week you won't want to miss. Listening Sessions: Fr. Dan & Fr. George have started Listening Sessions. Others will follow. See the schedule in the next column. Call a host if you are interested in attending or schedule one of your own. A few dates are available. The agenda is simple: you talk; we listen! We have 4 questions to guide our listening: 1 What do I think is being done well in the Parish? 2 What would you think needs strengthening/improvement in the Parish? 3 What needs should be addressed that are not being met in the Parish? 4 As we work toward greater collaboration between the two Parishes, what do you think we can do better together than apart? We will also invite people to consider the Arise program. Would you be willing to be a host, a small group facilitator and willing to invite a Catholic friend or relative who no longer attends church? (Because Fr. George has been at St. Margaret's for the past 12 yrs. and in order to encourage greater "freedom of speech," he will not be present at Sessions held at the homes of St. Margaret Parishioners.)

Paul, Apostle of Christ Jesus

Who was this man who turned the world upside down?

Last summer Pope Benedict XVI announced that the Church would observe a celebration in honor of St. Paul the Apostle, from June 28, 2008, to June 29, 2009. That announcement has prompted Catholics everywhere to ask once again: Just who was this man who "turned the world upside down" with the Gospel? For the beginning of an answer to that question, we will highlight throughout the Year of Paul articles to help you to get to know and appreciate this remarkable apostle some have called "the second founder of Christianity." We begin with his early life. Scripture offers invaluable primary historical sources for Paul's life: his letters and the Acts of the Apostles. In addition, we have several early traditions about him outside of Scripture. Paul was probably born between the years A.D. 5 and 10, just a few years after Jesus. (All the dates associated with his life are approximate and debated by scholars.) His parents were strictly observant Jews living in the city of Tarsus, the prosperous capital of Cilicia, a province of the Roman Empire in what is now Turkey. Paul was not just a resident but a citizen of Tarsus, which suggests that his family was wealthy. He also claimed Roman citizenship by birth, a status that carried considerable prestige. His Jewish name was "Saul"; "Paul" was a well-known Roman family name. This arrangement was common for Jews in this period, especially outside Palestine, who often had two names, one Greek or Roman and the other Semitic. The young Paul obviously received a fine education. He could write Greek well and probably knew Hebrew or Aramaic (Jesus' native language) as well. His writing and preaching demonstrated admirable rhetorical skills. In his adolescence Paul studied the Jewish Scriptures under the famous Jewish rabbi Gamaliel I the Elder of Jerusalem. In time, this avid student came to know the sacred texts well enough to quote extensively from them by memory, including the deuterocanonical books. Paul also had at least a passing acquaintance with other religions of his day. On at least one occasion he quoted from pagan religious texts while preaching. In addition, he knew the useful trade of tent-making, which helped support him during his missionary journeys. The apostle once declared that he was "a Pharisee, the son of Pharisees" (Acts 23:6). In one of his letters he recalled of his youth: "I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers" (Gal 1:14, RSV). It was apparently this religious zealotry that led the young man to persecute Christians, whom he must have viewed as a new and dangerous cult, threatening the Pharisaic traditions he so passionately embraced.

FAITH FACTS

THE APOSTLES: JOHN

Saint John was "the disciple whom Jesus loved" in the gospels. He wrote the Gospel According to John.

The picture is from a medieval copy of the gospels. It shows an eagle; the symbol of Saint John.

It seems that all of the apostles stayed in the Holy Land for about twelve years after Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection. After that, they spread the gospel in foreign lands.

John was the only one of the apostles who was not put to death. He died peacefully in Ephesus (in what is now Turkey) around the year 100 A.D.
