LIFT: Pope John Paul II has called the Church to “cultivate a lively awareness of Christ’s real presence, both in the celebration of Mass and in the worship of the Eucharist outside Mass.” LIFT has been born out of a desire to live out that call and marry it with contemporary trends in modern worship. You are invited to Lift on Tuesday, October 17 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at Dedham High School Auditorium, 140 Whiting Avenue, Dedham, MA.

Open House: At this present time most Catholic Schools in our area host an “Open House” to welcome prospective students and their parents. For your convenience see the list in the next column and give the school of your choice a call to obtain more information.

Never let anything so fill you with sorrow as to make you forget the joy of the risen Christ.

Exercise Your Spirit
“Walk worthy of the Lord and please Him in every way.”
 (Colossians 1:10)

Please notice the beautiful stone marker which is located in our flower patch on the lawn (Post Office side) of the Church. Engraved on it is the above quoted passage from Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians. This stone has been placed there as part of the community effort known as “Exercise you Spirit,” a designated walking path which links all the Churches of our community together. It is my understanding that a map and information about the walking path will be included in your next water bill. Take the opportunity and walk around the community and exercise both body and spirit.

The Living Rosary: On Sun. Oct. 15, the Living Rosary will celebrate its 20th Anniversary. Gather at 2:00 p.m. at Saint Mary's Church, 8 South Common Street, Lynn for the procession followed by adoration of the Blessed Sacrament & recitation of the Rosary. Msgr. What God Has Joined By Dr. Scott Hahn

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a trick question. The "lawfulness" of divorce in Israel was never at issue. Moses had long ago allowed it (see Deuteronomy 24:1-4). But Jesus points His enemies back before Moses, to "the beginning," interpreting the text we hear in today's First Reading. Divorce violates the order of creation, He says. Moses permitted it only as a concession to the people's "hardness of heart"—their inability to live by God's covenant Law. But Jesus comes to fulfill the Law, to reveal its true meaning and purpose, and to give people the grace to keep God's commands. Marriage, He reveals, is a sacrament, a divine, life-giving sign. Through the union of husband and wife, God intended to bestow His blessings on the human family—making it fruitful, multiplying it until it filled the earth (see Genesis 1:28). That's why today's Gospel moves so easily from a debate about marriage to Jesus' blessing of children. Children are blessings the Father bestows on couples who walk in His ways, as we sing in today's Psalm. Marriage also is a sign of God's new covenant. As today's Epistle hints, Jesus is the new Adam—made a little lower than the angels, born of a human family (see Romans 5:14; Psalm 8:5-7). The Church is the new Eve, the "woman" born of Christ's pierced side as He hung in the sleep of death on the cross (see John 19:34; Revelation 12:1-17). Through the union of Christ and the Church as "one flesh," God's plan for the world is fulfilled (see Ephesians 5:21-32). Eve was "mother of all the living" (see Genesis 3:20). And in baptism, we are made sons and daughters of the Church, children of the Father, heirs of the eternal glory He intended for the human family in the beginning. The challenge for us is to live as children of the kingdom, growing up ever more faithful in our love and devotion to the ways of Christ and the teachings of His Church.
