ARISE Together in Christ: Season One of ARISE Together in Christ is winding down and here are some thoughts from a few participants:

"The ARISE program has brought me closer to God to do his work. Because he is in my life, more of my days are filled with more peace."

"The ARISE program has been a tremendous blessing because people in our group have been so generous in sharing their faith. That has deepened and strengthened my faith."

"It was a very good feeling to share my spiritual feelings with so many sincere, spiritual people."

"Faith sharing is always a moving and intense part of the ARISE session. Through faith sharing, I can come to understand of where God is working in my life."

"Sharing in the program tells us we have all experienced similar situations. It is nice to know we are not alone and God is always with us."

"I felt the ARISE program brought me back to reading my Bible again. I have enjoyed the focus and direction. It has refreshed me, and I look forward to all the readings and sharing each week."

"The non-judgmental caring and sharing of thoughts and feelings."

"The 'ARISE in Christ' program, so aptly named is a wonderful experience of our faith shared with others and their viewpoints. Though it will last only a short time, hopefully it will spark an interest in us to continue to read the Bible and spread the Good News to others. Many many drops of water make up an ocean."

Arise was an enriching and uplifting spiritual experience for many people. We look forward to the next Season which will begin in the springtime. It is our hope that everyone who participated in this first Season will join us again and those who were unable to participate this fall will consider joining in the springtime for Season Two.

While the recent concert for Joey LoRusso was sponsored by the St. Vincent de Paul Society, it was the Women's Guild that provided the collation that followed. It was entirely donated by wonderful, generous people who work with Nancy Santangelo creating collations for all sorts of meetings. We also thank our co-pastors Fr. Dan and Fr. George who approved the use of the hall, and those that set it up and cleaned it up after. When all was said and done, we (St. Vincent de Paul) received a generous check to help us continue our work helping the needy. This is a good time to thank our parishioners for the continued support at the collection boxes in our church and the extra checks that we have received from various individuals. Even in the face of a deteriorating economy, your contributions have been an inspiration for all of us trying to help an ever increasing number of needy families. We do have a great caring family here at Blessed Sacrament. Thank you and my God continue to bless you and keep you safe.

Last week the Bishops of the Catholic Church in the United States held their annual fall meeting in Baltimore, Maryland. As a result of that meeting, Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop of Chicago and the President of the American Bishops Conference issued the statement found on the following page of this bulletin. Cardinal Sean has asked that it be made available for all Catholics to read and be made aware of. In the statement, the Bishops are asking President-elect Obama to consider the negative social outcomes if he were to sign the Freedom of Choice Act. If enacted the FOCA would have a far reaching negative impact on Catholic Health Care. Kindly read the statement and hopefully it will lead you to send President elect Obama a letter of your own.

STATEMENT of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

"If the Lord does not build the house, in vain do its builders labor; if the Lord does not watch over the city, in vain does the watchman keep vigil." (Psalm 127, vs. 1)

The Bishops of the Catholic Church in the United States welcome this moment of historic transition and look forward to working with President-elect Obama and the members of the new Congress for the common good of all. Because of the Church's history and the scope of her ministries in this country, we want to continue our work for economic justice and opportunity for all; our efforts to reform laws around immigration and the situation of the undocumented; our provision of better education and adequate health care for all, especially for women and children; our desire to safeguard religious freedom and foster peace at home and abroad. The Church is intent on doing good and will continue to cooperate gladly with the government and all others working for these goods.

The fundamental good is life itself, a gift from God and our parents. A good state protects the lives of all. Legal protection for those members of the human family waiting to be born in this country was removed when the Supreme Court decided Roe vs. Wade in 1973. This was bad law. The danger the Bishops see at this moment is that a bad court decision will be enshrined in bad legislation that is more radical than the 1973 Supreme Court decision itself.

In the last Congress, a Freedom of Choice Act (FOCA) was introduced that would, if brought forward in the same form today, outlaw any "interference" in providing abortion at will. It would deprive the American people in all fifty states of the freedom they now have to enact modest restraints and regulations on the abortion industry. FOCA would coerce all Americans into subsidizing and promoting abortion with their tax dollars. It would counteract any and all sincere efforts by government and others of good will to reduce the number of abortions in our country.

Parental notification and informed consent precautions would be outlawed, as would be laws banning procedures such as partial-birth abortion and protecting infants born alive after a failed abortion. Abortion clinics would be deregulated. The Hyde Amendment restricting the federal funding of abortions would be abrogated. FOCA would have lethal consequences for prenatal human life.

FOCA would have an equally destructive effect on the freedom of conscience of doctors, nurses and health care workers whose personal convictions do not permit them to cooperate in the private killing of unborn children. It would threaten Catholic health care institutions and Catholic Charities. It would be an evil law that would further divide our country, and the Church should be intent on opposing evil.

On this issue, the legal protection of the unborn, the bishops are of one mind with Catholics and others of good will. They are also pastors who have listened to women whose lives have been diminished because they believed they had no choice but to abort a baby. Abortion is a medical procedure that kills, and the psychological and spiritual consequences are written in the sorrow and depression of many women and men. The bishops are single-minded because they are, first of all, single-hearted.

The recent election was principally decided out of concern for the economy, for the loss of jobs and homes and financial security for families, here and around the world. If the election is misinterpreted ideologically as a referendum on abortion, the unity desired by President-elect Obama and all Americans at this moment of crisis will be impossible to achieve. Abortion kills not only unborn children; it destroys constitutional order and the common good, which is assured only when the life of every human being is legally protected. Aggressively pro-abortion policies, legislation and executive orders will permanently alienate tens of millions of Americans, and would be seen by many as an attack on the free exercise of their religion.

This statement is written at the request and direction of all the Bishops, who also want to thank all those in politics who work with good will to protect the lives of the most vulnerable among us. Those in public life do so, sometimes, at the cost of great sacrifice to themselves and their families; and we are grateful. We express again our great desire to work with all those who cherish the common good of our nation. The common good is not the sum total of individual desires and interests; it is achieved in the working out of a common life based upon good reason and good will for all.

Our prayers accompany President-elect Obama and his family and those who are cooperating with him to assure a smooth transition in government. Many issues demand immediate attention on the part of our elected "watchman." (Psalm 127) May God bless him and our country.

When the End Comes By Dr. Scott Hahn

The Church year ends today with a vision of the end of time. The scene in the Gospel is stark and resounds with Old Testament echoes. The Son of Man is enthroned over all nations and peoples of every language (see Daniel 7:13-14). The nations have been gathered to see His glory and receive His judgment (see Isaiah 66:18; Zephaniah 3:8). The King is the divine shepherd Ezekiel foresees in today's First Reading, judging as a shepherd separates sheep from goats. Each of us will be judged upon our performance of the simple works of mercy we hear in the Gospel today. These works, as Jesus explains today, are reflections or measures of our love for Him, our faithfulness to His commandment that we love God with all our might and our neighbor as ourselves (see Matthew 22:36-40). Our faith is dead, lifeless, unless it be expressed in works of love (see James 2:20; Galatians 5:6). And we cannot say we truly love God, whom we cannot see, if we don't love our neighbor, whom we can (see 1 John 4:20). The Lord is our shepherd, as we sing in today's Psalm. And we are to follow His lead, to imitate His example (see 1 Corinthians 1:11; Ephesians 5:1). He healed our sickness (see Luke 6:19), freed us from the prison of sin and death (see Romans 8:2, 21), welcomed us who were once strangers to His covenant (see Ephesians 2:12, 19). He clothed us in baptism (see Revelation 3:5; 2 Corinthians 5:3-4), and feeds us with the food and drink of His own body and blood. At "the end," He will come again to hand over His kingdom to His Father, as Paul says in today's Epistle. Let us strive to be following Him in right paths, that this kingdom might be our inheritance, that we might enter into the eternal rest promised for the people of God (see Hebrews 4:1, 9-11).
