Expectant Parents' Blessing: Advent is a season of joyful expectancy; therefore, it is a wonderful time to invoke God's blessing upon expectant parents. Awaiting the birth or adoption of a child is both a time of joyful waiting and some anxiety. Let the Lord and the Church community reach out to you with a blessing of support, comfort, and reassurance. We invite all expectant parents to attend the 10:30 a.m. Mass at Blessed Sacrament on December 14. At this Mass expectant parents will receive a blessing and a small gift. Family members who are able to attend will also receive a blessing.

"It was you who created my inmost self, and put me together in my mother's womb.

You know me through and through from having watched my bones take shape when I was being formed in secret, knitted together in the limbo of the womb."

One Who is Coming By Dr. Scott Hahn

The mysterious figure of John the Baptist, introduced in last week's readings, comes into sharper focus today. Who he is, we see in today's Gospel, is best understood by who he isn't. He is not Elijah returned from the heavens (see 2 Kings 2:11), although like him he dresses in the prophet's attire (see Mark 1:6; 2 Kings 1:8) and preaches repentance and judgment (see 1 Kings 18:21; 2 Chronicles 21:12-15). Not Elijah in the flesh, John is nonetheless sent in the spirit and power of Elijah to fulfill his mission (see Luke 1:17; Malachi 3:23-24). Neither is John the prophet Moses foretold, although he is a kinsman and speaks God's word (see Deuteronomy 18:15-19; John 6:14). Nor is John the Messiah, though he has been anointed by the Spirit since the womb (see Luke 1:15, 44). John prepares the way for the Lord (see Isaiah 40:3). His baptism is symbolic, not sacramental. It is a sign given to stir our hearts to repentance. John shows us the One upon whom the Spirit remains (see John 1:32), the One who fulfills the promise we hear in today's First Reading (see Luke 4:16-21). Jesus' bath of rebirth and the Spirit opens a fountain that purifies Israel and gives to all a new heart and a new Spirit (see Zechariah 13:1-3; Ezekiel 36:24-27; Mark 1:8; Titus 3:5). John comes to us in the Advent readings to show us the light, that we might believe in the One who comes at Christmas. As we sing in today's Responsorial, the Mighty One has come to lift each of us up, to fill our hunger with bread from heaven (see John 6:33, 49-51). And as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we should rejoice, give thanks, and pray without ceasing that God will make us perfectly holy in spirit, soul, and body - that we may be blameless when our Lord comes.

Arise Together in Christ: Both Blessed Sacrament and Saint Margaret Parishes have recently completed the First Season of the Arise Together in Christ Program. By all indications, it was a wonderful spiritual process and most participants look forward to the next season which will begin the first week of Lent, toward the end of February. We are pleased that for the First Season, there were 10 groups that were formed with a total participation of 94 people. In the near future, the leadership of the Arise Program will be meeting to evaluate the past season and to see how Program participation can grow. We will keep you informed and encourage you to participate in the next season of Arise Together in Christ. We ask the Lord to bless this effort because we believe the He is doing something new, calling His people to holiness of life and strengthening our Catholic Community in Saugus.

The Jesse Tree: This Sunday at the 10:00 a.m. Mass at Saint Margaret's the 6th Grade will present the Jesse Tree. Religious Education Students at the 6th grade level learn about some very interesting people and their stories found in the Old Testament of the Bible. Many of these people had an important part to play as the world prepared for the coming of the Lord Jesus. The Jesse Tree is an "Advent Tree" because it serves as a vehicle to tell the story of God's faithfulness across 4,000 years of history. The Jesse Tree is named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot will spring forth from the stump of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots." It is therefore an appropriate symbol of Jesus, who is the revelation of the grace and faithfulness of God. Some of the people encountered in the Jesse Tree are Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Joseph, Moses, Mary, John the Baptist, and Elizabeth. We appreciate the wonderful lesson that our students will share with us during this Advent Season.
