The following 3 guilds are responsible for baking pies for this year's festival: St. Jane Frances, St. Monica's, and St. Elizabeth's. Pie tins and sign up sheets are on the tables in the basement and all pies need to be made. Chairperson, co-chair or volunteer member of each guild that is listed need to make sure all pies are being baked.

Thank you, Lunch Committee

Attention St. Blanche Guild Members: We are asking for a donation of $7 (or more) to be used in purchasing prizes for the Children's Games. You may give this to Mary Ann Rysavy or you may mail it to her @ 10325 Co Rd 45, Owatonna, MN as soon as you can. Thank you.

Please pick up your Festival tickets on the tables in the church basement. PLEASE NOTE: The price has been changed to $2 per ticket or $10 per book. You are welcome to take extra tickets. Please read the enclosed letter. Everyone is encouraged to sell as many as they can, as this is the biggest moneymaker for the Festival. Also pick up some Festival Posters and help put them up.

Parishioners of Holy Trinity Catholic Church,

This weekend we have a rather unique event. On rare occasions a major feast will replace the regular Sunday celebration. So, instead of observing the regular Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul. Through the preaching, ministry and witness of Peter and Paul, the early community grew and developed. They both died for the faith in the first century in Rome. St. Peter was put to death in the Circus of Nero which was located in the area beside what is now, St. Peter's Basilica. He is buried beneath the Basilica. St. Paul was martyred outside the city walls and is buried under the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. Pope Benedict has proclaimed this coming year a Pauline Year (dedicated to study and reflection on the message of St. Paul).

At my installation on Sunday, Bishop Harrington placed before us a challenge. He asked us to seriously reflect on his recent pastoral letter, Proclaim Jesus! and put it into effect in our parish cluster. Over the next weeks I will include parts of the letter for your reading and reflection. I will be working with our leadership councils to develop a plan for its implementation. Other parish groups will become involved as the plan develops. The Bishop has laid out four initiatives: Vocations, Youth Ministry, Evangelization (especially welcoming the immigrants) and Stewardship. Here is the introduction to his letter:

'In 2002, I published "Alive in the Spirit," a pastoral letter in which I set out a diocesan vision for the church in southern Minnesota, a vision that called us to strengthen our faith and to discipleship. Parish and diocesan staff members have worked to meet the benchmarks of "Alive in the Spirit." Now, as we await my successor, it is time to refresh our vision, to set new goals, to be about our Master's work.

By virtue of our baptism, we are "Alive in the Spirit," we are believers in Jesus Christ. What does that mean for our lives? How will sharing the life of the Spirit shape the direction that our lives will take?

Jesus attracted many disciples to His ministry, many who believed that He was someone special and, yes, a few who believed that He was the one sent by Yahweh. Some were drawn by the miracles; some were drawn to His outrage at the injustice that He saw in the world and His support for the poor. Some recognized that Jesus was the Anointed One, the Messiah, the One promised by God. As Peter said, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." (John 6:68) These believers we shall call disciples.

The life of a disciple was not easy. While some of Jesus' teachings made him politically popular, some were very difficult to embrace. When Jesus said that, in order to gain everlasting life, His disciples would eat His Body and drink His Blood, many of the listeners left Him. (John 6:68) Jesus also told them to take up their cross and follow Him. When He actually embraced the cross, the number of disciples shrunk dramatically. (Mark 14:50-52)

As Jesus approached the time of his return to the Father, He gave the believers one final instruction: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19-20) You and I are believers in Jesus; by virtue of our Baptism we are disciples of the Lord. How will we, in our corner of the world, obey Jesus' last command? The challenge from Jesus is to do more than believe. If we would be His disciples, we must do what the Father and Jesus have called us to do: we must live the life that He modeled for us, a life totally devoted to God and to helping others to become "Alive in the Spirit."

Since I published "Alive in the Spirit," many parishes have accomplished much of the vision that I described in that letter. We have seen much progress in evangelization, adult faith formation, the catechumenate and stewardship. As I approach the end of my service as your bishop, I seek again to establish a diocesan vision. This is a shorter-term vision, one designed to guide the diocese until my successor develops his own vision for our diocesan church. We will build on the work of the past five years as we prepare to take on even greater challenges in the future.

Because so many people told me that the benchmarks and initiatives in "Alive in the Spirit" were useful to them, I have chosen to adopt the same approach in this letter. Not all parishes will be able to work on all of the initiatives. I invite the people of the parishes of the Diocese of Winona to embrace as many as are possible and to Proclaim Jesus!'

Fr. John Sauer
