THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 14, 2009

Exodus 24:3-8

Hebrews 9:11-15

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: In the gospel today Jesus tells his disciples “you will meet a man ...follow him ...he will show you.” Every child needs “a man” to “follow” who gives them direction, not so much by words, but by “showing.” Fathers are called to “the man”, the “show-man.”

We are blessed at St. Louis to have such beautiful music. The choir will be practicing in August. Enjoy the summer off.

FAITHFUL REFORM IN HEALTH CARE seeks to call us together as people of faith to work for justice in the U. S. health care system. This is a vision which calls for an accessible, affordable, accountable and inclusive health care system which sees every person as deserving of this basic right and protection. Please join Bob Lynn, Jr., a member of the Emmaus Community Justice and Peace Group and a parishioner of St. Ignatius Parish, for a informational session and discussion of why our health system is broken and how to reform it on Monday, June 15, at 7 pm at St. Ignatius Parish Center, 212 N. Stadium Rd. in Oregon. For more info, please call the Parish Office, 419-693-1150.

FLOWER REFLECTIONS: In the mist of Family Life, we too, can find ourselves looking for a place to prepare to share a meal together. Job schedules, after school activities, extended family commitments, and emergencies demand our attention and pull us in what seems like a million different directions. We go-go-go on the tread mill of life, and at the end of the day we realize that we really never connected, we grabbed something to eat on the run (or did we?) ate in the car or grabbed an energy bar en route... Today's gospel invites us to 'go on ahead' and make some time to be together – it may not be sitting down at our own kitchen table, it might be McDonalds, or a brown bag sandwich, but can we be intentional once or twice a week, and have conversation when we eat, share our blessings and our struggles, slow down, if only go for a minute, and be present to one another.

ICC HELP WANTED: The ICC finance and Maintenance committee have set up July 11th for updating the grounds and buildings at 8:00 a. m. All are welcome and all help will greatly be appreciated.

SIGN AT ICC: A new sign will be replacing the old sign in front of church. Hopefully within 3 to 4 weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS: Congratulations to our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Thank you for service in this ministry.
