

School Organizations

Please contact the Parish Office to volunteer or for more information, 482-9411

Athletic Association

This association promotes programs that teach positive attitudes and sportsmanship in athletics. The sports programs involve grades 5-8 in the C.Y.O. (Catholic Youth Organization) League. Besides coaching the teams, this group also organizes the fund-raising for all expenses incurred (e.g. uniforms, equipment upkeep, and fees).

Home and School Association (HASA)

HASA is an organization of parents of children attending Queen of Angels School whose officers are elected. This organization does much of the organizing, coordinating of volunteers, and promoting of fund-raisers for the School's needs. It also promotes educational and informational talks and programs which are beneficial for parents as well as for their children. Another goal of this association is to encourage communication and cooperation among parents, teachers, and School administrators.

School Board

The Board consists of elected and appointed members. The purpose of this organization is to promote better understanding and support of Catholic Education especially for members of Queen of Angels Parish (Pre-school through Grade 8). This includes developing, defining, and discussing policies involving the parish school. Advice and assistance in matters of budget and hiring the school principal are part of the group's responsibilities.
