And now... a few questions for our Confirmation Candidates...

By learning about the faith backgrounds of you and your classmates, you'll make it easier for us to organize classes and determine teaching approaches. We will also be able to determine which basics of the faith to pass along to each class. Generally, past attendance at a Catholic school or participation in Faith Formation classes is necessary to prepare for Confirmation. In addition, weekly Mass attendance is a requirement for all who wish to be confirmed in the Catholic faith.

Please answer the following questions:
