

FOCUS ON THE MINISTRY

Holy Comforter-Saint Cyprian Ministers of Hospitality (Ushers – Adult & Youth)

The HCSC Ministers of Hospitality greets parishioners and guests and assists them when they enter the church. They distribute the weekly church bulletins, provides assistance to the pastoral staff and take up the offering. Ministers of Hospitality also make sure the church sanctuary and surrounding areas are maintained after and before each Mass. They manage and maintain the Candlelight Store (where parishioners and visitors can purchase devotional candles, rosaries, bibles, and various religious articles.

Ministers of Hospitality are expected be prompt, dependable, flexible and courteous. All Ministers of Hospitality receive initial training and on-going formation sessions. The Usher Board consists of three groups – each group has a captain and co-captain. Each group is responsible - for one Mass weekly, special services, and funeral.

Ministers of Hospitality consist of both adults and youth.
