Date	KeyWord	Description	Presenter
August 6	Perception	We examine texts from Scripture that summon us to the urgency of accepting salvation. Do we have a Biblical perception which warns that the road to damnation is wide and many follow it, but that the road to salvation is narrow and few find it. This night will emphasize a call to sobriety in terms of our thinking on the last things: Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell	Msgr. Charles Pope
August 13	Prescriptions	If the road to damnation is wide and the road to salvation Narrow what are we to do? How will the Lord lead us along the right path? We examine scripture texts that prescribe for us what we must do to cooperate with God's saving work: Prayer, sacraments, repentance, Scripture reading, metanoia (New Mind).	Deacon Kevin Butler
August 20	Prophets	Having pondered the urgency of our situation we examine how essential it is that we be prophets to others summoning them to faith and holiness. Without our fulfillment of our role as God's prophets, many, including our loved ones, will be lost. Tonight we examine Scriptures which exhort us to announce God's saving Plan to others.	Deacon Kevin Butler
August 27	Promises	We must not only be urgent to avoid hell we must long for heaven! What are some things that Scripture tells us of heaven and why is it important for us to long for Heaven.	Msgr. Charles Pope
