Vocation Breakfast

Sunday, October 24, 2010
in the PLC following the 8:15 am Mass

Speaker:
Sister Kateri Rose Masters, O.P.
Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia
Nashville, Tennessee

Sister Kateri Rose began as Mary Kathryn Masters, born in Columbus, Ohio, the third of four daughters of John and Kathryn Masters. Moving to Green in late 1994, Mary was a fun-loving youngster, soccer club team-player and later a youth coach. She was an actress in several musicals including Annie at the North Canton Playhouse; A Christmas Carol and Beauty and the Beast in the Canton Players Guild; and Sound of Music, playing the role of Louisa for 76 performances, at the Carousel Dinner Theater in Akron. She was also a member of the Spotlight on Youth Performing arts group. Mary studied ballet and voice, played the piano and harmonica and later guitar and violin. She loved horses, especially the Appaloosa she kept for awhile until she became too busy to ride him, but then she volunteered at Pegasus Horse Farm. As a member of Queen of Heaven Church, she was a cantor, served in the youth group and was a teacher of the Parish School of Religion.

Mary was given a Catholic education by her mother as a home schooler through her senior year. Especially in her high school years, she began to seek the will of God for her life. Through intense prayer and reception of the sacraments, Mary, at the age of 20, discovered what she had been seeking. Leaving all behind, she joined the Congregation of St. Cecilia Dominicans, Nashville, Tennessee, as a religious sister. Taking the name of Sister Kateri Rose, O.P. (Order of Preachers), she is presently teaching sixth grade Religion and Social Studies at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School in Carmel, Indiana. The Dominican Sisters, an Order of Preachers, “preach by teaching.” The St. Cecilia order currently numbers 260 sisters with a median age of 34.

Tickets to be sold after all Masses:
October 9/10
October 16/17
Cost ~ $3.00 per person

Image: Saint Kateri Tekakwitha